Dear Mr. Abhijeet Sandil

Upon seeing the post on your website [or Job Board Name/LinkedIn] for the open position of UI/UX designer at [Company Name], I felt compelled to submit my resume for your perusal. With exhaustive experience designing and executing web-based user interfaces, I find myself as an ideal match for this role.

With more than seven years in UI/UX designing and development, I am completely familiar with CSS, jQuery and HTML to drive and design front-end development projects, right from their conception to completion. I am also skilled at overseeing interactive communication and web-based projects with demonstrated expertise at managing multiple projects simultaneously and completing them within the stipulated time.

Some key highlights of my background are as follows:

- Experience involving in the redesigning of application framework, comprising redlining and specifications, design in Adobe Illustrator, CSS3 implementation, developing interactive prototypes in Axure and usability testing
- Ability to coordinate with designers and developers using Apache Subversion for version control
- Expert at training developers and designers on developing and using icon fonts in Photoshop and Axure
- Proven ability in website UI redesign using wireframes, prototypes and usability case studies to develop a fully functional web-based application
- Prowess in developing mockups and interactive prototypes with CSS3, jQuery and HTML5 for future upgrades of the website
- Experience working with developers to fix myriads of UI-specific or CSS/HTML problems
- Designed and created new features for Web 2.0 to boost the UX and upgrade the web-based platform

With my versatile and accomplished background in UI/UX design, I am sure to revolutionize the digital footprint of your company.

I look forward to speaking with you soon to discuss how I could be beneficial to your organization.

Thank you in for your attention and time.

Sincerely,

Himanshu Thakur
